We are local

For our homemade dishes we work with the colourful flavours from local suppliers and their beautiful ingredients. Haagse Eitjes delivers fresh eggs daily straight from the farm to our kitchen. The cows of butcher Piet van den Berg graze in the De Groenzoom nature reserve, just a few kilometers away. Our croquettes are from the Haagsche Croquetterij.

About us

Gallery61 is located in the historic Passage, The Hague's oldest shopping arcade, built in 1885. In our restaurant you see many original details and characteristic patterns and we combine history with modern design. Cheerful artworks and graphic prints create a unique atmosphere where art and delicious dining come together.
